How successful has Google Classroom been as a platform for completing homework?

Do you feel there is a value to project based/practical homework?

Thank you once again for taking the time to complete this survey.

Some of the headline points were:

- 70% of our families completed the survey
- Almost $\frac{3}{4}$ (70%) of parents who completed the survey preferred homework to be given out on Monday and returned on Friday
- Google Classroom - it seems the introduction of Google Classroom in KS2 has shown to be very positive and we will continue to use this platform in the future
- There have been some very help comments following this survey and we will continue to listen to you as we prepare for the year ahead
